Re: Doe 1, et al. v. United States of America, 24-cv-01071 (MKV)

Dear Judge Vyskocil:

My office represents defendant the United States of America in the above-referenced action brought under the Federal Tort Claims Act. I write to follow up on the letter the Government filed this weekend that, among other things, asked the Court to order Plaintiffs to privately disclose to us the federal judicial district in which each plaintiff resides. ECF No. 10. The Government's request is now moot, as Plaintiffs have emailed us the relevant information and identified the locations in the administrative record where their full addresses can be found.<sup>1</sup>

The Government thanks the Court for its consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney

<sup>1</sup> To be clear, the Government still (i) takes no position on Plaintiffs' motion to proceed anonymously and (ii) reserves the right to reopen down the road the issue of whether Plaintiffs can continue proceeding anonymously.
